Our Commitment
Enhance our service, bring through convenient services when, where, and how they talk, you talk.

Our Goals
- Support the economic reality of our library.
- Monitor and support public services/facilities with information to help people manage and improve their lives.
- Support and maintain the community's spirit, imagination, and culture.
- Continue to grow the community support through community services and functions.

Our Vision
You know us — and we know you.
You are your library card. We are your library. The direct result of your library use. You are a part of your library.

You support us.
You make a difference in your neighborhood. By giving libraries you support and improve your neighborhood.

You visit us.
You visit the library and find books and other resources. And if you can't find what you want, you come in to see us when you need specific information. And you have the library as a valuable part of your life.

You visit us.
You visit the library and find more books and resources. And if you can't find what you want, you visit the library and find other resources you need.

You can read through (for any reason)
Your library card is a part of your wallet. You are reading more, checking items out, downloading more, and enjoying the power and information you need. Remember it's your library. You made it.

Want to know everything that’s going on?

Pick up a copy of connectnow magazine, your bi-monthly schedule of all library programs and events, including the Bookmobile schedule, along with information on library resources. Pick it up at any service desk, on the Bookmobile or download a pdf from the digital branch at www.tscp.org. And, look for our e-newsletter, econnect, in your inbox.

How many items can I check out on my library card and how long can I borrow them?

Your library card permits the holder to check out up to 99 items. Because of popularity, some items are limited by quantity and have a shorter borrowing time.

How do I get a library card?

Any resident of Shawnee County may obtain a library card. Fill out a simple form at the checkout desk on any Bookmobile or online.

How do I return an item?

Return an item by requesting it at any service desk or online with your library card barcode and PIN. This puts it on a Bookmobile or you can pick it up.

What happens if I return something late?

Everyone shares library resources, and everyone expects materials to be returned on time. At this time, there are no late fees, but we do charge for lost or damaged items. If you lose your library card, please notify the library ASAP. 785 580-4490

How do I renew an item?

 Reserve an item by requesting it at any service desk or online with your library card barcode and PIN. This puts the item on hold for you. When the item is available, we’ll mail it to you, send it on a Bookmobile or you can pick it up.

How do I become a library volunteer?

There are volunteer opportunities available for all ages—from teens to senior citizens. Some positions request training, which we’ll provide!

The Library Where You Need It

When you need the library, look to our outreach services. Shawnee County covers 556 square miles, and Bookmobiles come to 17 stops across the county as well as visiting elementary schools. Red Carpet and Talking Books services bring library resources to 51 assist living facilities and the home-bound. Helping children start school ready to read is the goal of our Outreach Storytellers, promoting a love of reading at 83 daycare centers.

Welcome to the neighborhood

Our stacks have “neighborhoods” of related books housed within the same area of the library. Travel, True Crime and Health Information collections are categorized and labeled to make browsing fast and easy. Future neighborhoods include cookers, cooking and lawn and gardening.

Digital Branch Library

The Digital Branch provides library resources any time you need them. Our goal is for all library patrons to have access to all that modern technology has to offer. Our goal is to make elevators stand out!!!
